

FILEY BAY 1779 FESTIVAL

243rd Anniversary of the Battle of Flamborough Head
23 – 25 September 2022

Friday, 23 September

19.00

Single Rocket Launch - to mark the approximate time the Battle commenced
Buffet Dinner with Guest Speaker Dr David Pendleton discussing the British tactics in the Battle; musical entertainment by The SALTS with special guest, poet Ian Dohig.
Filey Sea Cadet Pavilion, Southdene
£20 per person - for Tickets – get in touch by email – Fileybay1779@gmail.com

Saturday, 24 September

13.00 – 16.00

Filey Bay 1779 Mobile Heritage Centre

[Crescent Gardens]

Come and see us at our Mobile Heritage Centre to find out more about the Battle and what life was like in 1779 and on board a warship!

21.00 – 22.00

[Laser Light show with Music]

Coble Landing

Join us for an electrifying laser light display projected on to Filey Brigg.

Sunday, 25 September

13.00- 16.00

Filey Bay 1779 Mobile Heritage Centre

[Filey Seafront, Below Northcliffe Gardens, Cargate Hill]

Come and see us at our Mobile Heritage Centre to find out more about the Battle and what life was like in 1779 and on board a warship!

14.00 – 15.00

Sea Cadets Parade and Remembrance Service

Remembering the 400 men & boys who were injured and lost their lives during the Battle. The Parade Route will start and end at the Filey Sea Cadet Pavilion, with a short service taking place on the sea front, at the bottom of Cargate Hill. Sea Cadets from Scarborough [, Harrogate and Bridlington] will be joining Filey Sea Cadets for this event!

The Filey Bay Research Group was established in 2020 to raise local, regional, national and international awareness of the Battle of Flamborough Head for the benefit of the communities of Filey Bay, including in relation to heritage, history, tourism and education. For more information please go to our website – Fileybay1779.com.

*Filey Bay 1779 – Filey Bay 1779 Research Group Ltd No 13239678
A Community Interest Group as a company limited by guarantee*

